

Eagle Academy - School Closure FAQs

Please check back frequently as some answers will be updated as more information is released.

Q: Is school closed?

A: The school building is physically closed, but there is school on Google Classroom (classroom.google.com). Scholars are expected to complete school work virtually.

Q: Is my scholar's attendance being taken?

A: Yes. Attendance is being recorded daily in PupilPath:

<https://pupilpath.skedula.com/>

Q: Is my scholar's work being graded?

A: Yes. Grades will appear each week in Pupilpath:

<https://pupilpath.skedula.com/>

Q: I don't have internet at home in order for my son to get on Google Classroom. What can I do?

A: If your home does not have access to the internet, you may contact either of these providers for Free Wifi during school closure:

Spectrum - call 844-488-8398

Optimum / AlticeUSA - call 866-200-9522

Q: I don't have a laptop or iPad for my son to use to get on Google Classroom. What can I do?

A: Google Classroom is very cellphone-friendly. However, the city is also distributing free iPads. Please complete this survey link for a city-provided iPad: <https://coronavirus.schools.nyc/RemoteLearningDevices>

UPDATE:
As you wait for the city to give out devices, please make sure your scholar completes work on his phone, using the Web Browser instead of the App \(The app has many bugs\).

Q: What is happening with State Exams, Regents Exams, and AP Exams?

A: UPDATE: The Middle School State Exams are cancelled. Regents are still scheduled to take place in June. AP Exams will be taken online; your scholar's AP teacher will reach out with more information.

Q: My son is supposed to be graduating. Will he still be able to graduate?

A: As long as your scholar completes his coursework in Google Classroom, he will still be on track to graduate in June.

Q: My son is supposed to be receiving IEP services. How will he receive those?

A: All of your scholar's service providers will be in touch with you through Google Classroom / your son's eagleacademybk e-mail.

Q: I was supposed to attend an IEP meeting for my son. Is it still happening?

A: Yes. Mr. Jones or Mr. Aruz will be in touch about doing the meeting over the phone.

Q: My son was supposed to attend a trip or internship. Is it still on?

A: Currently all trips are canceled for the remainder of the school year. Internships are postponed until school buildings re-open. If your son paid for an end of the year trip, money will be returned when we return to school.

Q: When will school reopen?

A: Currently we are scheduled to return to the building on April 20th. Please check schools.nyc.gov for updates.

Q: I have another question not addressed in this FAQ. Who should I reach out to?

A: Please see the list of all Eagle staff emails on our homepage. Choose the person you want to speak to and send them an email with your inquiry. If your question is about specific assignments or accessing a class, please reach out directly to your scholar's educator.
