S.W.O.T. Preparation Strength, Weaknesses, Opportunities & Threats	Discussion regarding what the SWOT program is and whether or not it is an annual requirement. Tabled until convener, Sarah, can attend.
Community Partner Presentation	Matthew Kuempel's presentation on "Family Initiated Treatment and Engaging Families in Treatment of Youth" article by Kathy Brewer and Peggy Dolane from the Washington Behavioral Healthcare Conference on June 13, 2019. Matthew reviewed the details of pertinent new laws. He was able to answer a lot of questions and there was considerable discussion.
Lock Box Project	Tri-lead, Jill, spoke with the Health Department who said they have lock boxes, but only give them out at events. She said they think they can get relatively good ones for about $6.00. Mindy from Coordinated Care said she spoke with their membership and authorized purchase of lock boxes. Jill mentioned the possibility of a 1,000 lock boxes and Mindy thought Coordinated Care would be able to do that. Jill and Mindy will work out more details via email.
