White Lotus Salon celebrates fifth anniversary with art reception

SPECIAL TO NWA MEDIA

White Lotus Salon & Massage in Fayetteville will celebrate its fifth anniversary Saturday with an art reception for photographer F. Lee Green.

Green is a stylist and the manager of White Lotus. All who attend the reception can enter to win a spa day for two. Refreshments will be served and E.D. Laningham will perform live music.

Green's exhibit will feature nature photography, including photos of scenic old barns, creeks and flowers. The photos were taken using microphotography.

As a celebration the salon's anniversary, select products by Kevin Murphy, Eminece Organic skin-care products and Pureology hair products will be 30 percent off.

White Lotus features a different artist each month, showcasing unique art by local artists in the lobby and throughout the salon. Each November and December, White Lotus holds a holiday market where works of local artists and other locally made products are available for sale.
