EMPLOYMENT

Empower Your Future: Career Readiness Curriculum Guide Resource

To support young people's successful transition to work and career, the Guide was developed to take into account a variety of learning styles, to be interactive and engaging to youth and to be delivered in a "hands-on" manner. The material covered in the Guide is based on a positive youth development model that is asset-based, culturally responsive, and focused on the essential work and life skills necessary for personal and family self-sufficiency. <https://is.gd/1xPiYe>

TRAINING

"Soft Skills"/Employability Skills

Employees need to show employers that are comfortable, competent, and confident to learn how to do the tasks at hand. These are called "soft skills" because they are needed to succeed in virtually all jobs.

Let's look at ways we can show employers that we have the necessary soft skills to get that job.

- Work ethic.
- Courtesy.
- Teamwork.
- Self-Discipline and Self-Confidence.
- Conformity to Prevailing Norms.
- Language Proficiency.

Want to check your soft skills? HERE is an excellent online "quiz" that will help you measure your "soft skills".

Lifespan Transitions Center

The Lifespan Transitions Center works to equip communities to support the successful and unique transition of individuals with disabilities to ensure they can live their best lives for their whole lives.

We do this by being agency-neutral, outcome-focused, and person-centered in offering resources, training, and technical assistance to create successful support systems that incorporate community living and employment.

*Secondary Transition
Modules Alternate Access*

It is essential that other stakeholders such as families, agency providers, institutions of higher education, and students themselves have an opportunity to engage in the Modules. Common understanding promotes integration and collaboration that can help all work smarter together for improved student outcomes.

- Student-Focused Planning - How do I help my students plan for the future?
- Student Development - What skills do my students need to meet their postsecondary goals?
- Interagency Collaboration - How do I involve agencies in postsecondary planning?
- Program Structure - What foundational elements are necessary to effectively implement transition services?
- Family Engagement - How do I engage families in postsecondary planning?
