

Take Wing “Tengluni” Calista Region Students Prepared to Take Flight from High School to Post-Secondary Opportunities
Class of 2023 Student Application to Participate in Immersion Cohort 5

What is Take Wing “Tengluni”?

Take Wing “Tengluni” Immersions provide you with the opportunity to explore post-secondary college classes, consider career choices, practice leadership, set goals and develop a pathway to reach them. As a Take Wing “Tengluni” student, you will receive training in time management, budgeting and healthy and safe choices. Yuuyaraq Lessons are the foundation of the Take Wing “Tengluni” Immersions that will empower you through reflecting on your own identity and culture as you make decisions on your future. Additionally, Take Wing “Tengluni” will provide you with a mentor to help you keep on track to graduate and achieve your goals. All activities will be provided to you virtually using Zoom video or audio conference, or in-person. The in-person Immersions include a one-week trip to Anchorage in the Fall of 2022 and a one-week trip (location TBD) in the Spring of 2023; participation will be dependent on the current status of the Covid-19 pandemic.

When is Take Wing “Tengluni”?

September 2022 – May 2023 – Virtual Sessions via Zoom: Orientation, Yuuyaraq/Post-secondary Education, Pop-up events; and receive regular mentoring via phone

In-person Immersion I: Fall 2022 in Anchorage

In-person Immersion II: Spring 2023 (1 week: dates and location TBD)
