A Note from Rick: A great week overall for the markets at TLA! The slaughter cows led the way and sold $2-$3 higher than previous weeks. The market has made significant improvements over the last six weeks, with many of the cows in the high $60's and low $70's. Bull calves were not as strong this week, due to the higher feed prices experienced in previous weeks. This being said, I look forward to the markets being a little shakey throughout the next couple weeks or until the corn market stabilizes. On a more positive note, I was thrilled to see Thursday's Springer Sale come in strong, especially after a softer May Sale. We had some very exciting groups of cattle and a very active group of buyers. Springers sold over $100 higher with the number one heifers bringing $1300-$1400. I am looking forward to the weeks to come with the Summer Draft Horse Sale and June Driving Horse Sale this week followed by the Firecracker Frenzy on July 5th. Come check out all the action at TLA!
