

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH EVENT

FEATURING “BROKEN VOWS; RELIGIOUS PERSPECTIVES ON DOMESTIC VIOLENCE” BY FAITHTRUST INSTITUTE

- After 25 years, the DVD remains the top, groundbreaking, most widely used teaching tool on the topic, and shows how religious teachings have been misused to perpetrate abuse and ways for religious communities to work proactively to end domestic violence, and has received the Golden Eagle, CINE, Cindy Award for International Association of Audiovisual Communicators, and recognized as the Northwest Regional Emmy Nominee from National Academy of Arts and Science, and will be showcased Internationally in November at the Battering Intervention Services Coalition of Michigan Conference: “Religion, Faith, Spirituality, Science & Research: Engaging for Safety and Accountability.
- A special presentation by Bettie Williams-Watson, one of six featured survivors.

This event is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be available.

Details:

Holgate Street Church of Christ
2600 S. Holgate Street
Seattle, WA 98116

Time & Date: Saturday, October 20, 2018, 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 pm

For more information, please contact Bettie at (206) 250-8725.