

Growth

A little garden flower is lying in its bed,
A warm Spring sun is shining overhead.
Down come the raindrops dancing to and fro
The little flower wakens and starts to grow.

I'll tell you how I know which sea - son's here.

Come all ye fair and tender ladies.
 Take warn - ing how you court young men.
 They're like a star on a sum - mer's morn - ing
 First they'll ap - pear and then they're gone.

If I had known before I courted
 That love would be so hard to win
 I'd put my heart
 in a box of gold and it lock it up with a silver pin.

Sally Go 'Round the Sun

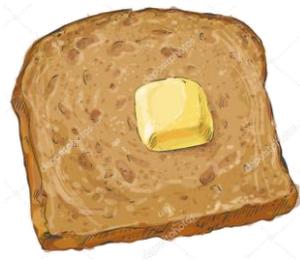

Sal - ly go 'round the sun, Sal - ly go 'round the moon, Sal - ly go 'round the chim - ney top, Ev - 'ry af - ter-noon. BOOM!

Who comes creeping in the night
 When the moon is clear and bright?
 Who paints tree leaves red and gold
 When the autumn days turn cold?
 Up the hill and down he goes
 In and out the brown corn rows,
 Making music crackling sweet
 With his little frosty feet.

Rock-a-bye baby
on the tree top.
When the wind blows,
the cradle will rock.
When the bough breaks,
the cradle will fall,
And down will come baby,
cradle and all.

Rock-a-bye baby
don't be afraid.
It was a dream,
a trick your mind played.
Bough will not break,
and cradle won't fall.
Dear baby and cradle,
safe after all.
