

Aisha Alexis

Aisha is a native New Yorker who attended the Professional Children's Program at Broadway Dance in Manhattan and the University of the Arts in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She trained with Black & Blue star Savion Glover, Frank Hatchett (she was a member of the Hatchett Junior Troupe), and River Dance star Tarik Winston. She also studied at the Alvin Ailey school in NYC. While at the University of the Arts, Aisha worked in videos with Salt-N-Peppa and Boyz to Men. Her dancers have competed at Star Power, Showstoppers, Star Systems, and IDC winning numerous titles and overall awards, Aisha is well versed in what it takes to be a competitive dancer. As the competition tap teacher at NSD, she is known for her acapealla tap routines and her rhythmical tap classes.