About the EQUUS Film Festival

The EQUUS Film Festival is the first film festival oriented around equestrian themed content from all over the world. EFF empowers storytellers to show the rich history and diverse tapestry of horses in human culture through equestrian content. We have feature films, documentaries, shorts, music videos, commercials, training educational materials, art and literary.

EFF has been created to highlight and award the diverse and creative efforts of those who artistically pay homage to the horse. In 2017, the festival hosted over 150 films at the Village East Cinema in New York City. From horse related commercials to wounded warrior films, blind equestrian journeys, feature length documentaries and narrative films, gathered from 17 countries around the globe.

The interest is International. Our films have come from France to New Zealand and everywhere in between.

Hundreds of films have gained recognition, found international distribution and reached global audiences. We believe that film holds the power to experience a story in the most compelling way.

We empower storytellers to share their unique equine stories in the most optimal setting: a movie theater.

By placing the EQUUS Film Festival in the capital of the world, New York City, people from all walks of life can enjoy these inspiring stories.

We look forward to welcoming you to the 2017 EQUUS Film Festival, where you can enjoy the impressive line-up of films, amazing artist and interesting authors.
