Hi UCBC Dad's,
Not easy being a Dad is it? It seems like we had all kinds of good answers before we actually had children, then we found out being a father was harder than we expected. Did you ever think,

“If my kids don’t do things my way and do it right now, I’ll fix that in a hurry?” Now your thoughts are more like: “I hope I don’t screw them up too bad, and I pray they turn out better than me.” Yikes, reality has a way of messing up fantasy.

For all the challenges, we wouldn’t trade being a “daddy” for anything in the world. Here are some Father’s Day thoughts, hope you enjoy them.

- ✓ By the time a man realized that maybe his father was right, he usually has a son who thinks he’s wrong.
- ✓ Any man can be a father but it takes someone special to be a dad.
- ✓ A truly rich man is one whose children run into his arms when his hands are empty.
- ✓ A Father is a banker provided by nature.
- ✓ The greatest gift I ever had came from God; I call him Dad!
- ✓ A Father carries pictures where his money used to be.
- ✓ When I was a boy of fourteen, my father was so ignorant I could hardly stand to have the old man around. But when I got to be twenty-one, I was astonished at how much I had learned in seven years.
- ✓ Once a father heard his son pray, “Dear God, make me the kind of man my daddy is.” Later the father prayed, “Dear God, make me the kind of man my son thinks I am.”

Love you guys, keep being the best Dad’s you can be with God’s help. - Kent

P.S. In my house I’m just called “D.” It started when Kara was a few years old and was not speaking yet, even the speech therapist could not get her to open up and say anything. So I would put whip cream on my finger and if she would try to say something I would reward her with the whip cream. For a long time, when she would get excited, she would call me “D, D, D, D, D, D, D,” and it stuck with everyone, so I went from being “daddy” to just “D.”

Senior Moments Highlights: We will be going to Cana, VA on Thursday, June 15th. We will be leaving the church at 9:30 am.

UCBC Coffeehouse! Our last coffeehouse will be Saturday, June 3rd at 6:00 pm. We’ll have live music featuring Taylor Mason. So bring a friend and join us.

Thank you for your Hospice Home donations. Both HP and WS locations were very appreciative. Our next Hospice Ministry emphasis will be Sunday, June 11th.

On Monday, May 15th, as part of our Inward Missions, we delivered meals to eight households (14 people). I wish to thank everyone who assisted with meal preparation, packaging the food for delivery, and to those who assisted with the delivery. Also to those who contributed monetarily for this project.

The Thomasville Baptist Children’s Home Annual Food Roundup was very much a success!!! 119 items were donated and delivered. It was an honor to make this delivery – our church was well represented with this collection. Please continue to pray for the adult cottage parents and all the children staying at this facility. We are thankful there are Baptist Homes for Children available to meet the needs of children in heartbreaking situations.

The annual ladies fellowship tea was a “winner” as well. We had 52 in attendance plus there were 109 items (& 2 hygiene kits) collected for Crisis Control. What a wonderful way to be inspired, have fun, fellowship, and also support a wonderful ministry at the same time. (Please note there were no funds that had been designated for WOM used for this fellowship tea—it was funded by an anonymous individual.) A very big thank you to everyone who helped make this event so special and successful.

Additionally, during the month of May WOM purchased items for a layette basket as a special remembrance for a newborn in our extended church family.

Our next meeting will be Wednesday, June 7th and we hope to see you there. Our mission is to serve others in our community, and from the things listed above you can see we are definitely on target as “UNION CROSS REACHES OUT TO SHOW HIS LOVE.”

Operation Inasmuch! Plan to meet at church on Saturday, June 24th at 9:00 am for a variety of mission projects throughout our community as together we serve others in the name of Jesus! For more information contact Jean Foster or Donald Wimbrow.

June Food Drive is sponsored by the WOM. It will be held at UC Food Lion on Saturday, June 10th at 9AM – 1PM. June’s food items are: Peanut Butter and Canned Meat.
