Forgiveness

Anyone can hold a grudge, but it takes a person with character to forgive. When you forgive, you release yourself from a painful burden. Forgiveness doesn't mean what happened was OK, and it doesn't mean that person should stil be welcome in your life. It just means you have made peace with the pain, and are ready to let it go.

ATTENTION!!!!

Any information that you would like for us to include in thebulletin should be submitted in writing by Wednesday at noon to the Parish Office, or can also be e-mailed to: info@ologp.org. Please note, information submitted electronically still needs to be approved by Parish Staff! Thank you!

MASS READING RELFECTION

Jan 20, 2019

1st Reading Is 62:1-5 [God's Love for His People]

Once the Prophet Hosea (8th century B.C.) had mentioned his own broken marriage as an example of Israel's unfaithfulness to God, later Biblical writers also began to compare the relationship between God and humans with the intimate love of husband and wife. In this reading it is one of Isaiah's disciples who takes up this theme to console the people of his day: "As a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you." He assures them that although past infidelity was punished with defeat and exile to Babylon, God forgives and takes his people back as his spouse.

God's word to you in this passage could be a question: How do you see yourself in a relation to God? Is the promised reward or love the man incitement of your Christian life-style? God loves you. "Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nation" (Responsorial Psalm).

Readings 1 Cor 12:4-11 [Gifts of the Holy Spirit]

The setting is the congregation in Corinth, Greece, with an active charismatic movement. Some of its members have been overemphasizing the importance of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, especially the gift of speaking in tongues. Paul stresses that God loves all of us and gives his same Spirit of love to all members, but he respects our individualities. We are different from one another: There are different workings [ministries, gifts] but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.

Accept people as different! Apply this to your family, friends, parish. Loving people only if they want to think exactly the way you do is narrowminded. It is something done in "closed societies." Outgrow this!

When in a marriage two people have grown into a mature love for one another, one of them can be heard to say in the course of a lively conversation: "But my wife and I think...." Such partners have grown into the conjugal oneness mentioned by the Bible: "The two of them become one body" (Gn 2:24; Mt 19:6: note that in Biblical language "body-flesh" stands for the whole person). It can also happen that the marital oneness is overly stressed by one of the partners. The man who once loved that charming little woman so much because of certain Beautiful qualities of character may become a tyrant and seek to mold his wife into a blueprint of himself. This is love turned into egotism.

Real love is participation in one another's personality with great respect, never destroying it! In the awareness of the Bible, human beings are related to God in a sacred partnership (covenant), which has conjugal overtones, as today's readings bring out. But in his great love, God does not destroy us as persons. We are and should be different, though the same Spirit of love has been given to all of us. Christians should live in the joy of the wedding (partnership-covenant) between God and human beings.
