

MARLAN M. SPRAGUE

1926-1994

Marian M. Sprague, 67, a 1945 graduate of Sebawing High School, died Friday, June 24, in Bay Shore Nursing Care Center, Bay City.

She was born Marian M. Bell in Cass City on July 22, 1926, daughter of Wallace R. and Anna Mae (Palmer) Bell. She was graduated from Sebawing High in 1945. On Sept. 8, 1945, she was married to Edwin D. Sprague and he survives her. She resided in Bay City most of her life and was employed with F. W. Woolworth Co. for 22 years. She was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Parish.

Surviving beside her husband are three sons and one daughter and their spouses, Edwin J. (Kay) Sprague of Bay City, Lawrence A. Sprague of Essexville, Ricky Lee Sprague of Montrose and Rebecca Ann (Philip) Martieck of Freeland; five grandchildren; two great-granddaughters and two sisters, Priscilla Hebert of Bay City and Joan Leahy of Sanford.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, Kenneth and Wallace Bell, and one sister, Marjorie Montague.

The funeral service was celebrated Monday morning in St. Joseph Catholic Church, Bay City, with Rev. John Fondeau officiating with interment in Floral Gardens Cemetery.

W. A. Trahan Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.