Gold Star Mother's and Family Day September 26, 2021

Gold Star Mother's and Family Day falls on September 26 this year and is traditionally observed on the last Sunday in September. The day is for honoring families of those who have received The Gold Star – the military award no one wants.

The award commemorates the tragic death of a military member who has perished while in the line of duty and hopes to provide a level of comfort to the parents and families that are left behind. Since World War 1, a "Gold Star Family" has signified a family that has lost one of its members in combat. The family can display a Gold Star Service Flag for any military family members who have died from any honorable cause – each gold star on the flag signifies a death. Though today only around 1% of the country is involved in military service, as compared to the 12% during other times of war, like World War 2, there are still a significant number of surviving Gold Star families – not to mention, a Gold Star lives on in a family's legacy.

HOLY WATER

Throughout the history of Christianity, holy water has been one of the most potent, visible and easily accessible symbols of the faith. As a sign of cleanliness and purification, water has been used in many ancient and modern religious traditions in ways that find imitation in the modern Church. The ancient Greeks, Romans and Egyptians used it for cleansing rituals, as did the Brahmins of India and Native Americans. The laws of Moses enumerated in the Old Testament contain several references.

For Catholics, holy water—water blessed by a priest—is known as a “sacramental,” a sacred sign that bears a resemblance to the sacraments. “Unlike a sacrament, a sacramental does not itself confer the grace of the Holy Spirit. “Nevertheless, like a sacrament, a sacramental helps the faithful to sanctify each moment of life and to live in the paschal mystery of our Lord.”

For the modern Catholic, holy water is heavily freighted with meaning and exists as a symbolic reminder of three things: Repentance of sin, Protection from evil and Baptism.
