

Dan O'Brien

Treasurer – CMI Executive Board

In many cases, you wouldn't think of an accountant/treasurer as your "Fun Guy". Not so, here at The Colonnades!

Dan O'Brien is the "go to" guy for great parties, skits and laughs.

On the serious "business" side -

Dan O'Brien is the perfect candidate for Treasurer.

His education includes:

- BBA Accounting at St Francis College
- Graduate, Controllership at St John's University.

Dan's business experience is very impressive as well.

39 years with a major New York City Utility – holding positions of increasing responsibilities which include:

College Intern Program – Accounting Dept. – 2 years

Accountant – Research & Development Dept.

Senior Accountant – Gas Operations – Budget & Personnel

Dept. Manager of Budget, Personnel & Safety – Gas Ops.

Division Controller – Borough of Queens – Budget, Computer Applications and Performance Analysis (Auditing) – Reporting to Vice President

Budget Director – Responsible for a budget of well over $1 Billion and 72 employees, Reporting to a Senior Officer.

Yes, Dan can add, subtract, multiply, and divide . . .
and does it all with a smile on his face and a future fun party in mind!
