Walk 104 Overview

And Walk 103

Reflections

They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?"

Luke 24:32

God has blessed me to serve on Walk #104 as the Lay Director. When I was asked to be Lay Director, I called my best friend (a former LD) and I said to her "I feel so unworthy" and her response to me was "You Are". What a shock to my system to hear those words. She went on to say you see "We are all unworthy of God's grace and the gifts he bestows on us", which is so very true. This reminded me of something a pilgrim said on an earlier walk at Closing, she said "God doesn't call the equipped, He equips the called". Well from that day on I thanked God for the opportunity (challenge) and began leaning on him for everything. As I set about the tasks of preparing for the walk, I asked for his wisdom and guidance in everything. God has chosen a wonderful team for Walk #104. God has also taught me more deeply about perseverance and given me a lot of material for my talk on Perseverance.

It has been 10 years and 7 months since my original walk (CAEW # 20), where the presence of the Lord was so awesome and the feeling of unconditional love flowed freely. That walk was a milestone in my life. My walk allowed me to be free from things that held me back from becoming the person God wanted me to be and allowed me to see God's presence in my life. Since my walk, I have been blessed to serve in lots of different areas in Emmaus and to receive the great joy of watching the metamorphosis of the pilgrims on the walks. Truly one of the best rewards is coming back to serve.

The scripture verse for this walk is Jeremiah 29:11 "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." This scripture was the prophet Jeremiah's letter to the discouraged and disillusioned exiles in Babylon to encourage them. I love the fact that verses 12-13 speaks of seeking God, praying to God with your whole heart. Walk # 104 has been covered by prayers! My prayers are for each pilgrim to have a great experience and they leave this walk with a "burning heart" just as the two men on the Walk to Emmaus.

I really want to thank all of the people who have signed up to work the walk, the people who have been praying since early on, the people who have ministered to me in so many ways, the former LD's that have given me advice, the Spiritual Director, Assistant Spiritual Directors, Music team, Media, ALD's (bless them - this is a tough job), the Table Leaders and Assistant Table Leaders, the Background Teams, all of the people who assist, and those that will attend the glorious Candlelight, Serenade, and Closing.

Matthew 6:1-4 says, "Be careful not to do your acts of righteousness before men, to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven. So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by men. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your giving may be in secret. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you." One of the principles Jesus taught His disciples was anonymous servanthood. It is also one of the foundational principles behind the Walk to Emmaus. Each time I work a walk, I am amazed by the number and variety of anonymous servants who serve behind the scenes. It seems that each weekend I become aware of more anonymous servants who serve so faithfully. Even though they may be unseen by the pilgrims, our Father is watching. I firmly believe that anonymous servanthood puts a smile on God's face. He sees what is done in secret, and the reward we will receive from Him is far more valuable than the accolades of men. But what would happen if we continue to practice anonymous servanthood when we get home from a walk? Just wondering...

Message From LD - Men's Walk 103 - October 07

Do you know how much you can forget in just a few years? If I had been a Lay Director sooner, I would have had a lot of confidence going into the planning. If I had accepted the position sooner, I would have a strong idea of what I would have wanted the Walk to be like. If I had done this a few years ago, I know who I would have wanted to work in the conference room. Have you counted the number of "I"s in this paragraph? My memories of how things are usually done had faded. God impressed upon me that it wasn't about re-creating my memories; it was more about helping the pilgrims create theirs.

This was the right time. Much had been forgotten, and for me that was a good thing. A God thing. On the cover of the LD planning book I inserted the Prayer to Holy Spirit. Each time the book was held and prior to it being opened there was the reminder to first pray. That prayer took on a whole new interpretation for me during the planning – to use it as intercession for the helpers and pilgrims.

Expect the unexpected; that was the feeling that hit me a few weeks prior to Walk 103. Helpers and pilgrims shared the struggles that almost prevented them from coming. Although it is not unusual to hear how the deceiver tries to distract people, it seemed more people than usual were hit and the intensity was hotter. One of the pilgrims had to cancel the afternoon the Walk started, but God had a response. After 3:00 pm another pilgrim said yes. Once the Walk began, the power went out. God had a response. It launched men into a state of readiness the next morning. One pilgrim told me that when the lights came back, he thought it was time to get up and ready. When he realized that he was the only one waiting, he used his steno pad to do some journaling. It was a discipline he enjoyed but had neglected over the past few years. He told me it was a "God thing." I used a steno pad to journal during the weekend. It was something I needed to recommit to doing. The loss of power also halted the movie. Men were asking, "What did we miss?" God had a response. During communions, Rev. Steve Spining told the men, "This is the rest of the movie." He tied several moments of the weekend back to the "end of the movie" and the Holy Spirit could be felt leading Steve what to say. It was a spiritual battle the whole weekend. Each time Satan threw a jab, God would knock him out with the right cross.

What else made 103 different? Despite having some outstanding singing voices, witnesses told me that we had to be the "most tone deaf" bunch to ever go through the Walk. I protested but was quickly reminded that I too am tone deaf. VERY TRUE! We also set a new standard for posters. There were presentations that had well-designed and complex graphs (my tutor later explained them to me). There were also posters that had half stick-men with missing torsos. You know who you are. I think that set a new standard, as well. What else made 103 special? The many follow-up comments from pilgrims and people who worked were more confirmation of God's presence. Seeing a man walk to the altar on Sunday and recommit his life to Christ made it special. Receiving a phone call from another man whose life was completely changed by the Walk gave me Holy Ghost bumps. God is Good. All the Time.

Let us therefore draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and may find grace to help in time of need.

Hebrews 4:16

Time is Made, Not Found

The truth is that we don't have time not to practice solitude and silence. No time is more profitably spent than that used to heighten the quality of an intimate walk with God. If we think otherwise, we have been badly educated. The real question is, will we take time to do what is necessary for an abundant life and an abundant ministry, or will we try to get by without it? Knowing Christ though times spent away in solitude and silence will let our "joy be complete" (John 16:24)

Dallas Willard

"A believer who becomes proud is living in opposition to God. The Christian life is designed to be a life of dependency. When pride moves into a life, it slowly wears down the sense of dependency, for the essence of pride is self-sufficiency. By allowing pride to creep into one's personality, a believer develops an attitude toward life that is diametrically opposed to what God intends. God does not help the proud; He does not encourage the proud; He does not assist the proud; He resists the proud."
