CENTRAL FALLS
Parish with Polish roots celebrates century mark

The church celebrated its 100th anniversary on Saturday in a ceremony held in the dining hall. The Rev. Fr. [Name] presided over the Mass, which was celebrated in the presence of many guests. The church's history is rich, with its roots in the Polish Catholic community of Central Falls. The building, designed by [Name], stands as a testament to the faith and perseverance of the parishioners. The ceremony was a joyous occasion, marking a century of service to the community.

A glorious day in the history of our parish – please see the bulletin board in the hallway for the many citations.
