Prayer

O God of life, there is much in our everyday life right now that causes us doubt and despair. Take our hand and lead us to stand tall, care for others, and affirm signs of hope around us. Free us from our fears and motivate us to lift up human dignity and to continue to proclaim "Black Lives Matter". We give you thanks for those who stand as beacons of hope, peace, and justice.

Let us listen again to your call:

"To preach good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind. To set at liberty those who are oppressed and proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." (Luke 4: 18-19) Set our feet on the path to follow the life of Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith. Amen.

Joys and Concerns (please send me your joys and concerns for prayer)

- Healing for new Covid-19 outbreaks and full hospitals.
- For Karen Walker who will be having foot surgery on Aug 13.
- George and Patt Bowsby on the death of their son, David.
- Mildred Wells, Colleen Rivers and family are doing well.
- Safety for Robin Curtain and her family with all the storms on the Eastern Seaboard.
- Beirut tragedy. Prayers for the injured and families that lost loved ones.
- Ohio Church worship service, one sick person infected 100 other worshippers.
- Virus surge among young people.
- School Supplies: Thanks to everyone helping, sorting, packing, handing out, donating.

Prayer

We have much to offer in prayer today. Please grasp our every word and sigh as we lift up those named in our Joys and Concerns, but please carry us even farther along the path. Our path today brings to mind so many troubling things and milestones in a virus count we would rather not hear. Even when we feel restless, calm us. Even when we busy ourselves with much needed tasks, let us take time to lift our hearts and souls to you, most gracious God. Help us to clear some space for your love to seep into every fiber of our being. Give us the gift of quiet and stillness every day. Not a quiet stillness of rehearsing our anxieties, but a space to breathe in your love and release the things that trouble us. Give us the mind and heart to trust you today in this moment. Amen.

Let us join together in the prayer that Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading: Hebrews 12: 1-2, 12-13

Therefore since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and wayward path which cling so closely and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees, make straight paths for you feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but rather be healed.

Offering time

We invite you to continue your gracious offerings to our congregation. You can use Automatic Bill Pay, set it up with your bank and they will send it to the church. You can always send a check by USPS.

If you would like to donate electronically,

Go To our website: www.tualatinumc.org

On the opening page of the Website, you will find a blue link to donate on line.

THANK YOU so much for your generosity for the life of our church family, staff, and our ongoing ministry together. Mere words cannot express our deepest appreciation. With your help we will be able to pay our on-going bills and make employee payroll for the weeks ahead. Your loving care fuels our ministry and mission every day.

Benediction Prayer:

As we go forth from this time, let us picture the faces of those whom we love. Let us imagine the faces of those whom we have yet to meet. In each face, let us see the face of Jesus come to life. In the name of God, our Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer. Amen.
