

SUNDAY MORNING
meditation

For much of my Christian life I've reacted to the deadly doctrine of once-saved-always-saved. Lest anyone be careless in his obedience because of a false security, I've often stressed those scriptures which warn against falling away or coming short. Indeed God knew the need of some believers to hear that salvation without obedience is impossible and that faith without works is dead. But in recent years I see a need to emphasize the security we have in Christ. Too many Christians look at their imperfect walk, and feel continually condemned, unsure of their standing with God. This has robbed them of confidence in their prayers and their futures. But we have no condemnation; we're the righteousness of God in Christ, We can stand in God's presence without shame, guilt, or sense of inferiority. We approach Him confidently as precious children who are "highly favored" in the Beloved (Eph. 1:6, literal). All for Jesus, Richard

2018 Magi Report

To those of us who are blessed with earthly belongings, it's hard to imagine that many go without basic needs being met today. Some of the stories from the 2018 MAGI gift boxes being handed out were of children excitedly opening the gifts and seeing soap, toothbrushes, sandals or a hair brush and being thrilled to have these basic items! MAGI boxes are delivered with the love and servant heart of Jesus Christ. Thank you NCoC for being part of this amazing ministry. There are no words for the look of pure joy on the faces of these children. Truly it is more blessed to give than receive! Our 2019 MAGI box campaign will kick off and run through the month of August. Our goal is 10 more boxes than last year!

Coping with Long-Term Health Issues: A Spiritual Journey

Mike has been teaching Bible classes for over 40 years. He loves studying the Bible and helping others understand what God is saying. Mike was also in ministry for over 20 years, and taught at a Christian high school for 5 years. Following his time as a teacher, Mike suffered a disabling back injury. That experience continues to teach him about pain, and the need for both God's love and the help of other believers.
