Polk Township Ordinance 2011-03 adopted 6/27/11 requires reflective E-911 sign be placed at all driveway entrances to all properties with principal structures. To view the entire Ordinance, please call the Polk Township Office during regular business hours.

Certificate of Occupancies may be held if the property E-911 sign is not correct. The Zoning Officer will require the E-911 sign to be installed or corrected before a Certificate of Occupancy can be issued.

E-911 Sign Requirements:

- Signs may be VERTICAL or HORIZONTAL
- Signs must be REFLECTIVE GREEN BACKGROUND with 4" WHITE NUMBERS
- Must be adequately visible from both directions of travel
- Sign must be 42" off the ground and under 72" in height
- Sign posts must be on your 6' to 8' from the road pavement and not in Township right-of-way. They can be placed on mailboxes
- Do not place sign on a fence, utility pole, stone, tree or across the street.
- Call 811 (One Call) before you dig!

Mailbox requirements:

- The front of the mailbox must be 4 ½ feet from the road pavement (This is the Township right-of-way)
- Mailboxes must be maintained by the homeowner. (snow must be removed in order to receive mail)
- Mailboxes in Township right-of-way that are damaged during snow and ice events are NOT reimbursed by the Township.
