Prayer

Gracious God, who has created us and who sustains us: We come with thanksgiving for these moments when we can ease the pace of our lives and listen for your voice. Create a spirit within us that truly draws us toward you and toward our brothers; and sisters: a spirit deep, perceptive, gentle, and bold. Clear our minds, open our hearts, and touch us with your presence and your power. We offer this prayer in the name of Jesus our lord. Amen. (Charlotte Still)

Prayer

O God, we ask that you play your song of life through us. Stretch our concerns and capabilities so that the church as the body of Jesus, may bring and live out working for the common good. We seek courage to worship you with our whole selves, for to do so changes us. Let us lift up those mentioned in our joys and concerns, and at the same time, let us look around in the world and lift up “Black Lives Matter”, peaceful demonstrations for justice, and the pandemic that is ravaging our world. Even when we are afraid in the midst of unrest, let us never trample on the rights of others. Move us from the sidelines to speak the word of inclusion, love and peace. Even when we retreat with worry, continue to motivate us to follow the example of Jesus. Let the words of our mouths and the actions of our lives reflect your endless call to love, peace, justice and healing. Amen

Mom Dana and Dad Jordan say “Hi” too!

Let us join together in the prayer that Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Song Tell Your Heart to Beat Again Danny Gokey

Scripture Readings: Ezekiel 36: 26-28; Jeremiah 31: 33

Ezekiel 36: 26-28 A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you; and I will take out of you, your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to observe my ordinances. You shall dwell in the land which I gave to your ancestors and you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

Jeremiah 31: 31-33 (adapted) Behold the days are coming says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah, not like the covenant I made with your ancestors... But this is the covenant which I will make with you after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within you and I will write it upon your hearts; and I will be your God and you shall be my people.
