Tending the Soil, Tending the Sower, 2020

Your final opportunity to register for this year's catechists' formation day is rapidly approaching. The formation is scheduled for Saturday, September 26th at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Riverview, and is open to all catechists. To support necessary changes meant to ensure the safety of all, we will now begin at 8:30 a.m. with prayer, offer three 1.5-hour sessions, facilitated by Trevor Driesbeck, Susan McCarthy and Charlene Peters with a 10-minute stretch break between the sessions. No tea, coffee or snacks will be provided; however, participants are welcome to bring their own. Masks upon entrance and during one-on-one conversations is mandatory.

Participants are asked to arrive no later than 8:15 a.m. to provide time to welcome everyone safely.

I Still Haven't Found What I'm Looking For: Vocation and the World Synod, with Trevor will invite us "to reflect on our faith journeys and the important role that discernment plays in our lives as we strive to live out our vocations, as well as enter into dialogue with the young people whom we serve as we accompany them in their faith."

It Takes a Village: Welcoming the World to Our Sessions, with Susan will speak about the importance of extending God's abundant hospitality to all who participate in our catechetical sessions, recognizing the wonderful myriad of cultures which now make up our groups.

When the Bottom Falls Out: Keeping the Faith in Difficult Circumstances, with Charlene will acknowledge the struggle of holding on to our faith in challenging times, particularly given our current reality.

Pre-registration, by September 23rd is necessary and may be done by contacting Ellen, Trevor, your parish catechetical coordinator or online at <http://www.diocesemoncton.ca/en/calendar-details/tending-the-soil-tending-the-sower-2020-catechist-formation-> and clicking anywhere on the "Tending the Soil, Tending the Sower" poster.

Participation in this day of formation is critical for all those who will be catechist coaches or helpers with children's catechesis.

CHILDREN'S CATECHESIS

Given our current reality, catechism for children will begin later than usual this pastoral year, commencing the week of October 18th. This will allow parents and children the opportunity to adjust to the changes in the school system and provide parishes the necessary time to prepare to receive families in a safe way. Registration for sessions will take place over the coming weeks, so please watch your bulletins for further information on that as well as what catechism will look like this year.

UPCOMING MEETINGS: Sacrament Resource Preparation Committee: Adult Faith Commission: Thursday, September 24th at 6:30 p.m. Meetings take place at the Diocesan Offices on York Street. Masks are mandatory upon arrival. Please use the Dominion Street entrance.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

R.C.I.A. stands for "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." It does require a commitment of time but we think you will find the process much easier than you might expect. In addition, we have found that everyone who becomes involved, young or old, highly religious or moderately so, finds the process to be a wonderful experience. An invitation is extended to those who are not baptized, those baptized in the Catholic Church but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist and / or Confirmation, those baptized in another Christian tradition who are interested in learning more about the Catholic Church. Participants are also invited to register for mass. For information please contact the parish office at 857-4223.

Exploring our Faith

The Unfairness of It All

I was in high school (a Roman Catholic all girls high school) and dating the captain of the boys' Roman Catholic high school hockey team. There was an eagerly anticipated big game scheduled for the weekend. However, I was in the school choir, who were in the midst of the Kiwanis Music Festival, kind of a big deal in music circles in St. John's, NL in the 1970's. Our director, who knew a thing or two about teenage girls, and what was going on in the schools, warned us all to stay away from the game. The screaming from rooting for our team was not going to help our vocal chords for the singing required during the Festival, she told us, "You are going to have to sit this one out ladies." "It's not fair!" I said to my parents. "It's not fair! Everyone is going. I am leaving the choir!" My dad rarely engaged in these conversations – far too trivial to concern him and anyway, child management was Mom's job. But, in this situation: "Very little in life is fair, Ellen. Probably best if you learned that now," he said as I stated my case to Mom.

In the Gospel reading of this Sunday, I totally get where the first workers hired are coming from. While a case may be made for workers hired at 9:00, ones hired at 5:00 to get the same wages as those who worked all day? That doesn't seem fair at all. Yet, "My thoughts are not your thoughts ... my ways are not your ways."

My dad was right almost 50 years ago – much in life seems unfair. Is it fair that some people doing good, valuable, important, necessary work get paid exorbitant wages for that work, and others also doing good, valuable, important, necessary work receive barely a liveable income? We learned during the Covid-19 lockdown that essential work comes from a variety of occupations. Is it fair that some folks struggle to grasp even the most basic mathematical concepts, and others will someday be able to tell us how the universe started? Is it fair that Jeanne Calment from France celebrated her 122nd birthday, and Becca Schofield only her 18th?

I have no answers for any of this. Still, I am grateful that my thoughts and actions are not God's, because sometimes those thoughts and actions are not life-giving: not to others ... not even to me. Fair is not always equal. The owner of the vineyard is right when he tells the workers he is doing them no wrong – he paid them what he told them he would pay them. Somehow though, we expect in such situations, that we should be rewarded more – we don't want just what we need; we don't want just what we are entitled to ... we want what she has. And the more we get, the more we want. We think if we can simply have that one more thing, we will be happy; but humans are always yearning for more. I read once that luxury, once tasted, becomes necessity. The reality of that becomes clearer to me every day.

God forgives the unforgiveable, loves the unlovable, extends mercy to cruelty. Mostly we find that difficult to understand because we are unable to do it. God, thank God, doesn't reward us only what we are merited. God's ways are higher; God's thoughts are higher. God sees what we are unable to see and responds as only God can respond.
