

Bettie Waddy-Smith

Bettie retired from Gallaudet University in 2012 after serving 40 years as a certified Speech Language Pathologist. She is currently CEO of BWS Communications, her consulting business. She also sits on the board of the International Communication Learning Institute (ICLI). She has been married to her husband, Gary, for 47 years; they have two sons, two daughters and one granddaughter. Bettie was introduced into the Oracle Set Book Club by Harriet Alexander Whiting in 1999. As member of the Book Club, she has served as Book Club president, vice president, luncheon committee chair, and member of the Scholarship committee. Her favorite Book Club activity is being a member of the Foundation's scholarship committee where she has the opportunity to meet and interview potential scholarship recipients.
