

Theatre & Kids Summer Theatre Caravan

June thru August 2018

Polished retellings of Classic tales in two joyous Musical Productions for Seniors, Families, Children of all ages!

The Adventures of Mr. Toad June 19 - July 12

An adaptation of the wonderful stories of The Wind in the Willows by Kenneth Grahame.

Mole flees Spring cleaning and soon makes friends with a free-wheeling river Rat and rich, jovial Toad of Toad Hall. Soon there are wild road races, silly chases, and the introduction of a helpful Badger. A beloved British tale featuring elaborate sets and costumes, toe-tapping songs and dances, and a lively, creative story that accents friendship, fun, and life lessons. A perfect forest outing for audiences of all ages.

Alas, Sweet Nell!

July 17 - August 10

A wild, fast-paced fable of heroes and villains, songs and dances, and hysterical comedy from first word to last. It's the 1890's and Sweet Nell and her mother are about to lose their farm to the rich, wicked Snidely Whiplash and his silly side-kick Bungles. Of course there's a handsome singing hero ready to come to the rescue. Audiences will gladly boo, cheer, and laugh, delighted by secrets, surprises, wild adventure, chase scenes, and the required musical happy ending. A tale guaranteed to delight young and old. So much fun!
