How parents can influence their children to be strong readers and writers

Children can watch their parents reading and writing every day

savvyteachingtips.blogspot.com

magazines

newspapers

recipe books

notes to others

novels

personal letters

tablets

shopping lists

to do lists

cheques

That was funny!

We just saw that at Grandma's house!

That little boy was scared!

That's just like your toy fire truck

Parents can use comments to help the children react to stories and understand more.

"tyranasaurus" That's a big word.

"Jack" and "Jill" both start with the letter J

"big", "boy", "box". These words start with buh.

"house", "mouse". These words rhyme.

Parents can use comments to draw attention to the sounds in words.
