A MESSAGE FROM WALK #139 LAY DIRECTOR

It is said that life is not a destination, but a journey. I would also add that Emmaus is not a destination, but a journey. A journey designed with natural progression as a person grows in his/her understanding of God, the world, and themselves. It is an intentional lifestyle of growing deeper in knowledge and wisdom, and through this journey, growing ever closer to our Creator. That is exactly what has been happening with me since October 2002. You see, I have always considered myself "religious", but until Emmaus Walk #52, did I begin to understand the "relationship" part of my walk with Christ. Emmaus has enabled and encouraged me to grow in my relationship with other Christians and with God.

Emmaus has been an amazing eye-opener for me personally, as I would imagine it has been for many of you as well. Through this amazing ministry lives have been transformed, lifetime friendships have been forged, and the Church, the Body of Christ, has been strengthened because of the leadership and sacrificial giving of time and talents by so many faithful followers.

I am excited, humbled, nervous, honored, blessed, anxious, and a whole bunch of other adjectives, as we approach Walk #139. I covet your prayers as we enter into this 72 hours with God and with each other. God has truly given me an amazing team of servants to lead on this weekend, and I know that God has multiple blessings in store for the pilgrims, as well as every individual who serves on this walk, both in the conference room and on the support team. I would also emphasize that one person, nor one portion of the team is any more or any less important than another. We serve together for one common goal, which is to lead these pilgrims into a closer walk with God, and to raise up Christian leaders in our Church and in our communities.

So, what next? What happens after this weekend for me? Nothing changes! I will continue to serve when I can, where I can, as often as I can, with everything that I have to give to this ministry. I fully believe that one of my spiritual gifts is that of servanthood. I plan to put my gifts to use at Emmaus, as well as my Church. I love this ministry, because of what it does in so many lives, and I want to see it continue to thrive for many generations.

A MESSAGE FROM WALK #139 SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR:

I don't know about you, but I can't wait for Walk 139 to begin. The reason I can't wait is not because of being back in the Conference Room, it's because I can't wait to see what God is going to do in the lives of all the pilgrims who will be on this walk, and how He is going to use each Conference Room Team member to accomplish His will. Did you notice I said, "What God is going to do?" You see, it's not about the ability any of the Conference Room Team brings to this walk, but it's all about what God does working through each one of us. When we realize that, as Paul said in 1 Corinthians 3: 9, "We are laborers together with God," all we have to do is to be willing to do whatever He tells us.

Did you hear the story about the little boy who was selling ten-cent pencils door-to-door to raise money to build a thirty-million dollar hospital in his community? One woman said to him, "Son, that's a mighty big goal for just one little boy selling pencils for a dime." With a big smile he replied, "Oh, I'm not doing it alone. See that boy across the street? He's my partner; we're doing it together."

Now if he could have that kind of faith in someone who was his equal, shouldn't we have confidence in a God whose power is unequalled, and whose partnership guarantees success? The Bible says: "we are laborers with God." This means that we have unlimited potential to reach out and be his hands, his face, his voice, and his feet, as we humbly serve the pilgrims on Walk 139. As I said earlier, "I can't wait for Walk 139."
