

The Movement Character Breakdown

Jean - Female // 17-25 // N/A. Main female character. Jean is a modern 1917s woman, smart, compassionate, full of love but unsure about the future. Believes women deserve equal rights and wants to fight for it. Has an abusive mother and unsure boyfriend. Seeking a female multi-racial, black, asian, native, hispanic, latinx, pacific-islander, arab or white actor.

Richie – Male // 20-30 // N/A. Narrator and main male character. He also feels all people should have equal rights and narrates the story as he tries to find where his true passion lies. Strong character traits, sings well and good Vaudville comedic timing preferred. Seeking a male multi-racial, black, asian, native, hispanic, latinx, pacific-islander, arab or white actor.

David – Male // 18-25 // N/A. Jean's suitor. He must decide whether to hold to his misogynistic beliefs he grew up with and lose Jean, or choose to try to understand and support her in order to continue the relationship. Traditional values guy of 1917, any build and good comic timing. Seeking a male multi-racial, black, asian, native, hispanic, latinx, pacific-islander, arab or white actor.

Men: (2-5 ensemble men) 1. policeman/bar-goer/Man 1 2. Policeman 2/bar-goer/Man 2 3. Congressman/protestor 4. More possible protestors and anti-protestors/bar-goers/policemen

Women: (5 women and 1 girl to do costume change) 1. Dora (Roxy) 2. Adult Lucy (Lady 1/Woman 2) 3. Lucy's Daughter (Woman 3) 4. Jean's great-granddaughter (Lady 2/extra woman in jail w/out lines but sings ensemble parts) 5. Jean's great-great-granddaughter (Jean's Mother/extra woman in jail w/out lines but sings ensemble parts) 6. Jean's great-great-great granddaughter (young Lucy - Jean and David's daughter) (All women to play protestors or anti-protestors) Seeking a male multi-racial, black, asian, native, hispanic, latinx, pacific-islander, arab or white actor.