Join us for a second homeschool theater troupe for the younger set as we bring to life an adaptation of the classic story of Charlotte, Wilbur, Fern, Templeton, and all your favorite characters from this wonderful story. In addition to this production, students will participate in various theater games throughout the year to build skills in characterization, diction/projection, stage movement, team work, and much more! Join us for our second year as we present an adaptation on the delightful comedy "Arsenic and Old Lace"! The Brewster sisters are as sweet and gentle as can be – aside from one little habit of poisoning lonely gentlemen and burying them in the cellar! Class will NOT meet on March 16 (Children's Theater performance day), but will have dress rehearsal and performance on Friday, March 23. Dress rehearsal at normal time, and performance at 2:30 in the studio.
