

D. JAMES MCGEE

1915 - 1989

D. James McGee, age 74 of Elkton, passed away Thursday, Oct. 26 at the Huron County Medical Care Facility.

He was born Feb. 10, 1915 in Meade Township at the home of his parents, the late Daniel and Elizabeth (McCormick) McGee. On Feb. 19, 1938 he was united in marriage to Jean McIlhargie at St. Felix Church, Pinnebog. She preceded him in death on March 25, 1986.

Mr. McGee lived in the Elkton Area most of his life and had been an employe of the Elkton Co-op Farm Produce Company from 1947 until retiring in 1977. He was a past member of the St. Francis Borgia Catholic Church, Pigeon.

Surviving him are four sons: Richard of Sarasota, Fla., Lawrence of Mt. Clemens, William of Elkton and Charles of Bad Axe; one daughter, Mrs. Larry (Grace) McCallum of Port Austin; six grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; one brother, Frank McGee, Elkton; three sisters, Mrs. Loretta McLellan, Mrs. Annabel Louks, Bad Axe and Mrs. Madalyn Krohn, Elkton.

A son, Jerry, two brothers, Martin and Vincent McGee and two sisters, Margaret Light and Winnie Dowde, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, Oct. 28 at St. Francis Borgia Catholic Church, Pigeon with Rev. Fr. Ben Skornia officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Funeral arrangements were handled by the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton.