

Highly Favored

Of all the young women in the world at the time, God chose Mary to be the mother of Jesus. The angel informed her that she was “highly favoured” of God (Luke 1:28).

It is important for mothers to see that they are highly favored of God just by being allowed to be mothers. God favors all of us, of course: He saves us, uses us—a phenomenal privilege and an awesome responsibility to make ourselves available to receive His favor. But godly mothers must especially be highly favored of God.

History shows almost all the greatest workers for God had godly mothers.

As Noah’s wife, let mothers instill in their boys God’s principles so they can live righteously when all their companions are evil (Genesis 6:1-6).

As Rachel, let mothers train children to avoid the strong temptations of the teen years (Genesis 39).

As Jochabed, let mothers train children to love and serve God above the world’s riches (Exodus 6:20; 2:1-10).

As Hannah, let mothers teach children to pray (1 Samuel 1:11, 19-28).

As the Shunammite woman, let mothers teach their children to be at peace (2 Kings 4:26).

As Elisabeth, let mothers teach children to be righteous before God (Luke 1:6).

As Mary, let mothers teach children to obey God (Luke 2:51; John 2).

As the Canaanite woman, let mothers cry to Jesus that He might help their daughters (Matthew 15:21-28).

As Mary, John Mark’s mother, let mothers teach children to value worship assemblies (Acts 12:12; 2 Timothy 4:11).

As Lois and Eunice, let mothers teach the value of unpretended faith (2 Timothy 1:5).
