

After further consideration and talking with the Parks & Recreation Dept. I have decided it best to cancel the Paul Stewart Classic due to the growing threat and uncertainty of the coronavirus pandemic. I don't want to wait until the last minute to cancel the tournament since a lot of the pitchers are from out of town. It is most likely that the city won't allow it anyway? Horseshoe pitching is great but health and life comes first.

Paul Stewart

Up dates

03/14/2020, City of Statesville cancels meetings and events involving more than 50 people until further notice.

03/16/2020, Parks & Recreation cancels all events through April.