

Restricted Access X-80 Camera System Applications.

Correctional Facility

The X-80 Iris camera system is battery powered and can be quickly relocated to address emerging threats.

Wireless encrypted communications with remote system control, allows operators to respond to rapidly changing environments and situations

The Daily Climate

The Chemical Facility Anti-Terrorism Standards (CFATS), also known as 6 CFR, Part 27, are a set of US government security regulations for high-risk chemical facilities such as chemical plants, electrical generating facilities, refineries, and universities.
Is your facility covered?