

UNION PUERTORRIQUENA DE AYUDA MUTUA PRESENTS
EL JIBARO DE HAWAII FESTIVAL

www.prumacenter.org ∞ Email: prumacenter@gmail.com

P.O. Box 498 ∞ Union City, CA 94587 ∞ (559) 960-6538

DESCRIPTION

The Puerto Rican Union of Mutual Aid (PRUMA) will be hosting the 1st annual Jibaro de Hawaii Festival on Saturday, 28 September, 2019 from 11:00am - 7:00pm. This event will be held at the P.R.U.M.A. Center located at 616 E. Street, Union City, CA 94587 and will be a FREE event open to the public. We invite vendors offering Puerto Rican and Hawaiian cultural merchandise for sale, such as clothing, instruments, toys, handmade arts & crafts, etc.

MISSION

The mission of the Jibaro de Hawaii Festival is to bring the Puerto Rican and Hawaiian roots of our culture to the communities of the Greater Bay Area by providing a fun family-friendly event that will educate and enrich all who participate.

FESTIVAL DETAILS

Date : Saturday September 28, 2019

Festival Time: 11:00am - 7:00pm

Location: 616 E. Street, Union City, CA 94587

Parking: Parking is not allowed in the Festival area. Vendors are requested to park on side streets which do not have NO PARKING signs. Additionally, box trucks or trailers should not encroach corners and remain 15 feet from the corner of any intersection.

Vendor Equipment Unloading: 6:00am - 8:00am (Unload Vehicles in 15 minute increments)

Note: You will have until 10:00am to finish setting up your booth. All booths will be outdoors. Vendors are responsible for providing all supplies; Tables, Chairs, Canopy (for 10'x10' spaces ONLY), and small generators. Vendors who expand beyond the 10' x 10' booth space will be charged double.

Questions? Contact Vendor Coordinator Sr. Pete Elisary (559) 960-6538.

Please mail Application with Check or Money Order to:

PRUMA
P.O. Box 498
Union City, CA 94587-0498