HEMPFIELD BEHAVIORAL HEALTH BRINGS AWARD WINNING SINGER AND SONGWRITER TO GETTYSBURG ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

GETTYSBURG—David Kisor from Growing Sound will be visiting several Gettysburg Elementary Schools this Thursday, November 13 to share in songs for social and emotional learning with Pre-K through 1st grades.

Kisor is a multi-award winning singer, songwriter, performer, and specialty trainer that composes songs that translate key findings from recent child development research into practical and entertaining music CDs for children, teachers and parents. "David" tours throughout the United States singing with children, and training teachers on how to use music in early learning and school-age classrooms.

Hempfield Behavioral Health partners with David Kisor due to their long history of supporting youth and families through evidence-based programs. “We are excited to share this extra opportunity to support the young children of Gettysburg, as part of our evidence-based offerings of The Incredible Years Programs for children and parents.” offered Andrea Niedrerr, The Incredible Years Program Director.

The Incredible Years® Child Program curriculum strengthens children’s social, emotional and academic competencies such as understanding and communicating feelings, using effective problem solving strategies, managing anger, practicing friendship and conversational skills, as well as appropriate classroom behaviors. Families interested in The Incredible Years program may contact Hempfield Behavioral Health at 717-221-8006 to enroll in this excellent program which has been funded by Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency.

Hempfield Behavioral Health is the leading provider of evidence-based behavioral health prevention and treatment services in central Pennsylvania.
