WORSHIP AND PRAYER

Everyday Stewardship: Give Graciously

I love the verse in Sirach where it says, "My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts."

We are called to be gracious givers. We are called to allow the Jesus in us to encounter the Jesus in others. Humility does not mean that we hide away after we give, but we give in a way that has less to do with us and more to do with the one in whose name we give. Our world needs philanthropy and generosity, but it needs Jesus even more. We want to be good examples to others of how to be generous, not because we want them to be like us but like Jesus.

Give all things with a gracious heart and disposition. Do not take any credit for that generosity but instead let it point to Jesus. It is Jesus who calls us to a mature faith where we answer the call every day regardless of the cost. Without that maturity and answering the call, would we really be driven to be generous givers? Knowing that left to our own devices we would probably not be very successful as a giver of gifts should make us very humble anyway.

Question of the Week (Year C) Seeking humility

Reading I Sirach 3:17–18, 20, 28–29 (humility)

Reading II Hebrews 12:18–19, 22–24a (God the judge; Jesus the mediator)

Gospel Luke 14:1, 7–14 (a lesson in humility)

Key Passage Jesus said, "But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." (Luke 14:13–14)

Adult: What concrete actions can you take in your community to help and improve the quality of life of the poor and homeless?

Youth: How has the desire for more things been a stumbling block to practicing generosity toward those in need?

St. Vincent DePaul:

Volunteers are available on Tuesday and Thursday mornings 9-11:00 AM

BIBLE QUOTE OF THE WEEK

What line or sentence in the Scripture touched you today? Why?

MINISTRIES AND SACRAMENTS

Music Ministry

fzelinka@stpiustenthparish.org

"The point isn't about building a music program. It's about moving the congregation beyond the position of musical consumers, who are either delighted or comforted or bored or offended by the music, and helping them become worshipers. At the same time, it's about growing musicians from performers with a "gig" mentality into worship leaders. It's about worship through song." This is a quote from the book Rebuilt: Awakening the Faithful, Reaching the Lost, and Making Church Matter. This book was written by Father Michael White and Tom Corcoran and it is the story of how they revived their parish by learning from the wisdom of the thriving mega-churches and anchoring that vision in the Eucharist and faithfulness to the teachings and tradition of the Catholic Church.

Tuesday evening choir practice will resume Tuesday, September 3rd from 6-7:30 pm. All are welcome to attend and offer their voice to enhance our worship at our parish.
