SUNDAY, OCTOBER 7

CYD SUNRISE

6:00 am • MAUNA 'ALA, CATHEDRAL OF ST. ANDREW, 'IOLANI PALACE, QUEEN LILI'UOKALANI STATUE, OPENING CYD -THE STATE CAPITOL

Mauna 'Ala is the sacred resting site of most Hawaiian monarchs and was created for Ka Haku o Hawai'i - our little Prince Albert - the son of Queen Emma and King Kamehameha IV. We invite our children, families and community to participate in the official cultural opening of the CYD event. This annual ceremony will select children and youth from our community to lead our guests through a protocol ceremony recognizing Prince Albert and Princess Ka'iulani, along with our ali'i, who perpetuated the values of aloha through peace, forgiveness, unity and legacies. A remembrance time will be held in the Chapel. Ho'okupu may be offered.

7:15 am • CATHEDRAL OF ST. ANDREW welcomes you for refreshments under the Aloha Tent.

8:00 am • CATHEDRAL OF ST. ANDREW — Hawaiian church service honoring our children and youth — this church was established after the passing of Prince Albert. Princess Ka'iulani was also baptized and Queen Lili'uokalani was cared for while residing at Washington Place. Join us for a wonderful celebration for all children and families of Hawai'i.

8:45 am • 'IOLANI PALACE — A private ceremony offering ho'okupu of the Queen's Prayer.

9:10 am • QUEEN LILI'UOKALANI STATUE — Join us for a moment of recognition. Ho'okupu may be offered.

9:15 am • MAIN STAGE - CAPITOL ROTUNDA — Oli, Pule, Himeni, Hawai'i Aloha to bless all volunteers, participants, guests and our community who support the 25th anniversary of CYD throughout the 50 states on this annual celebration day! Join us for a very memorable time celebrating our children of past, present and future...HO'OMAU as Uncle Eddie Kamae would say and "LEAVE A LEGACY" in the words of Aunty Malia Craver. For more information: Kumu Hula Leilani Kaho'āno - 352-0013 or leilani@namamoakeakua.org.
