

Liz Weber has six years of experience assisting individuals with disabilities understand their options and discover their own strengths. She is a certified Community Partner Work Incentives Counselor, and as a Certified Information and Referral Specialist – Aging and Disability, has provided extensive benefit counseling in the areas of Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security Benefits and Work Incentives, SNAP, Federal Housing programs, and other local, State and Federal programs. She provided technical assistance, and direct benefits counseling in the State of Minnesota under the SGA Project, which was a research grant with the Institute for Community Inclusion to test interventions on work outcomes, by supporting Vocational Rehabilitation consumers in Minnesota and Kentucky in better understanding their Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) benefits and other federal and state work incentives. Liz now works provides continued benefits support to beneficiaries in several other states. She can be contacted at liz.weber@fullcircledc.com.

