May Newsletter

President Notes

Good day everyone, hoping this newsletter finds you in good health. On Monday, April 27th, the board members met to discuss the impacts of the Covid 19 virus on our club and to determine our next steps. We decided to postpone all May activities and resume in June, in following the phasing in concept. In the “New Business and Reminders”, most of the changes are outlined. There will be some new procedures instituted at the ramp regarding the launch and weigh in procedures to insure all of our members are placed in a safe environment and those will be explained at great detail later.

We're not out of the woods by any means but things are looking up. Until then, get out and fish. It's one of those things you can do safely on your boat, enjoy and relax. Stay tuned, stay safe and Fish On

NEW BUSINESS AND REMINDERS

We are hoping to resume our tournament season next month. There have been some changes to the schedule due to recent event cancellations. Please check the schedule page on the website for details. The board is still deciding whether we will be holding a club meeting in June. Two factors that must be considered is availability of space and safety of our club members. It is uncertain if Nemo's Sports Café will be available at that time and we must also consider the feasibility of maintaining appropriate social distancing if we meet. If we do have a club meeting in June, to provide more time for continued re-opening of services and venues we will move the meeting to the second Tuesday of the month (9th) instead of the first Tuesday (2nd) and will post the location on the home page as well as the schedule page of the website. If we do not have a meeting, we will post tournament sign up instructions on the website.

To allow our anglers to complete a full tournament schedule of 12 club tournaments it has been decided to change our two-day tournament format into two one-day tournaments. These tournaments will be fished on Saturday and Sunday in June and October and each day will be counted as a club tournament. This will allow us to complete or normally scheduled 12 club tournaments during the tournament season with each angler's two lowest scoring tournaments dropped at the end of the season allowing each angler up to 10 qualifying tournaments. Team trail and Mini-Bucks will continue as scheduled.
