Fort Worth Decorative Painters is a Chapter of the Society of Decorative Painters

Dear Fellow Painters,

A big Thank you to Dora for introducing us to Alcohol Inks. The kit looked like a sweet gift. It was surprising how fast we completed our tile and ornament. They were all so beautiful! I look forward to the whimsical Halloween frog and pumpkins at the May meeting. Linda McDonald will teach. I am so proud of our programs. I hope we have many choices for next year programs. Please be working on pieces to teach. We will vote on programs in November.

Competition in the Texas State Fair is coming up soon. Entries need to be made in the summer. Don't be afraid to submit a painted piece in the Creative Arts division. You may win a ribbon. Visit Bigtex.com or Texas State Fair. This would be a step in earning the Chapter Achievement award. Please let me know if you enter. Also, let me know if you attend SDP's 50th Celebration in Las Vegas.

Fort Worth Decorative Painters has a Face Book page. If you are not already in this group, please join. Please post something you are proud of or something of interest. It would help our publicity greatly.

The Decorative Painters Academy offers classes. Deanne Fortnam, MDA is offering Stroke Worksheets. They teach use of complementary colors and strokes. This would be a great tool in developing your skills in stroke work.

We will experiment with Zoom at our May meeting. I will send everyone an email explaining and then each will get an invitation to join this meeting. This is only for those unable to attend in person.

We have scheduled a Saturday Special for July 9. There are no set details at this time. You will be notified via e-mail when final plans come together.

Happy Summer, Louise

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Gnome for the Holidays

Thank you very much to the ladies that have signed up to do a centerpiece!

Valentines - Juanita

Christmas - Louise

Spring - Peggy

Western / Texas - Jan

Halloween - Sharlene

All Seasons - Beth

We would also like to have 2 or 3 smaller pieces to incorporate with the centerpiece. These do not have to be gnomes, they just need to match the holiday.

This will give us additional raffle items for those that do not enjoy bidding on auction items.

Now for the auction...we will need items for the auction. These items can be of any subject and on any subject.

Please volunteer to paint a piece to be raffled or auctioned, this is our main fundraiser for the year and the fundraisers keep our costs for seminars and membership fees from being raised each year.

Dinner plans are in the works and we are hoping to keep costs to a minimum.

We want this to be a fun and relaxing evening!

Please text or email me if you have any questions or would like to volunteer.
