Meet our Miniature Zebu Judges

Jerry Mullins

Jerry Mullins has extensive experience evaluating Miniature Zebu cattle, including several National level and regional shows. In addition, he judges 20 - 30 shows annually. Furthermore, Jerry has evaluated cattle on four continents, North America, South America, Europe, and Australia.

Currently, Jerry owns and operates Gulf Coast Cattle, a cow-calf operation specializing in club calf, replacement females and bull production.

Jerry is passionate about the growth and development of young people and has coached one National Champion and four State Championship Livestock Judging teams.

Denice Hasty

Denice has been a Licensed Judge since 1994 with the AGS (American Goat Society), the NDGA (Nigerian Dairy Goat Association) since 1998 - Master Judge since 2010, and a Licensed Judge with AMZA (American Miniature Zebu Association) since 2009.

Specializing in Miniature, Productive Breeds with an ability to judge Breed Character, Conformational Correctness, and Longevity in Production in Proportion to Height.

As a hobby, Denice enjoys judging livestock across the country and maintains her accreditation with AGS, NDGA, and the AMZA.

Denice has been a licensed judge of miniature dairy goats since 1994 and gained expertise in judging Zebu through training with the AMZA in 2007. She has judged hundreds of licensed shows since her initial training in 1994 and continues to enjoy being around breeders of livestock across the country. In addition, she has judged a handful of FFA, 4H, and Fainting Goat shows over the last 20 years, including one of the largest 4H shows in the country with over 500 head (California State Fair), and the national AGS show with over 400 head.

Denice and her husband, Gary, live in Philadelphia and enjoy traveling, scuba diving, and spending time with their 4 granddaughters located in Boston, Dallas, and Seattle.

Many thanks go out to the businesses and individuals that made generous donations to our show which helped to make our show possible.
