Missionary Moments

WEEK OF APRIL 30, 2017

Morning: From Idol Worshiper to Church Planter

[New York] Born into a Hindu family in Nepal, R.C. SILVANUS was raised worshipping Hindu idols. God saved R.C. after he found a Christian tract that connected him to a ministry that did correspondence Bible studies. He and his family moved to New York City by faith in March 2015 to plant a church among the Nepali-speaking people of Queens. The ministry focuses on meeting the physical, social, spiritual and emotional needs of new Nepali immigrants. Your gifts through the Cooperative Program help R.C. share the good news with these new immigrants. Pray for the salvation of the 35,000 Nepali-speaking people of New York City.
