Lillian Martin Memorial Scholarship Application

This scholarship was created to honor Lillian Martin, who established the Sussex County Republican Women's Club (SCRWC) in 1952. The mission of the SCRWC is to assist in the election of Republican candidates, act as an advocate for Republican Party principles, and empower women to participate in the political process. Our club is pleased to offer financial assistance of up to $1,000 each to at least two female students in Sussex County, Delaware. Applicants must meet the SCRWC Scholarship Committee requirements and plan to attend an undergraduate or professional school. Recipients will be selected based on review of all information provided by this application, a possible committee interview, and approval of the SC RWC Board. Any missing or incomplete information will automatically disqualify an applicant. The scholarship monies will be paid directly to the school the applicant plans to attend.

Requirements:

Applicant must be a female who can provide proof of residency in Sussex County Delaware.

Proof of status as student enrolled in accredited undergraduate or professional program.

Completed application form with all required attachments

Copy of high school or post-secondary transcript with certified GPA of at least 2.5

Completed application postmarked by March 15th and mailed to address in heading or emailed to peggy@pegbowwhite.com by end of day on March 30th.

PLEASE DO NOT STAPLE PAGES TOGETHER

Agreement: The application and supporting information becomes the property of the Sussex County Republican Women's Club, Inc. The scholarship recipient is required to attend the May 2019 SCRWC meeting at which time the scholarship will be officially awarded. A letter providing club information and meeting time/location will be sent to the recipient.

If there are any changes to my educational plan, I will notify the SCRWC Scholarship Chair of those changes as soon as possible. I agree that I will abide by the conditions of acceptance for the granted award and will participate in an interview process if requested. Applicant's signature verifies that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of their ability. The recipient agrees to permit the SCRWC to use their name and photo for advertising and newspaper articles and on Social Media.
