PUBLIC SERVICE LOAN FORGIVENESS

HOW YOU CAN GET IT, AND WHY
WE'RE FIGHTING TO PRESERVE IT

The Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program (PSLF) was created by the U.S. Congress in 2007 to encourage individuals to enter and continue to work full-time in the public sector. Under PSLF, borrowers may qualify for forgiveness of the remaining balance due on their eligible federal student loans after they have made 120 payments under certain repayment plans while employed full-time in qualified employment settings.

This webinar will:

- Provide an overview of PSLF, sharing common considerations to become and stay eligible for loan forgiveness
- Describe resources freely available as well as the exclusive tools available to APA members who have student debt
- Examine well-publicized challenges that recent applicants to the program have been experiencing
- Review threats to the program on Capitol Hill and our work in a large coalition to defend PSLF
- Highlight efforts that APA is taking to engage its members to become advocates for the preservation of this program, including steps you can take as soon as the webinar end, and answer your questions
