

Sunday Meditation

God has promised to supply His children's every need (Phil. 5:19). That means God will take care of us no matter what our health or family or money problem is. Even if our current government spending policies don't lead to the predicted collapse, some unmanageable problem will inevitably come upon us all. How will we handle it if we don't learn now, in good times, to draw on God's supernatural deliverance? If we can't believe God for small things in easy times, how will we trust Him to sustain us in great disasters? God warned His people through Jeremiah about this very problem: "If racing against mere men makes you tired, how will you race against horses? If you stumble and fall on open ground, what will you do in the thickets near the Jordan (Jer. 12:5 NLT). If little problems defeat us, how will we face huge, catastrophic problems? All for Jesus, Richard
