Jacqueline's hobbies include going on walks, hanging out with friends, riding her horses, and operating her online boutique, Quintz and Company. Jacqueline has more than 11 years of experience with rodeos, horse shows, and other activities that will help her be a quality ambassador for the sport of rodeo, the state of Mississippi, and the western way of life.

Jacqueline has won the title Grand Champion from the TTES Riding Club as well as earning Reserve Champion from the Liverpool Riding Club. She also qualified for NBHA Worlds for four years in a row and is a 3 time Dixie National flag girl. In January 2021, she was crowned the 2021 Miss Dixie National as the official ambassador for the Dixie National Livestock and Rodeo Show. Jacqueline knows the job of Miss Rodeo Mississippi is one that only few have the opportunity to experience and is extremely grateful for the chance to be a representative for the state of Mississippi.

Fun Fact: Jacqueline and four of her siblings are the first set of living quintuplets born in Mississippi in half a century!
