

Betty Jean Winn, 88, of Caseville, died on Saturday, July 7, 2012 at Covenant Hospital in Saginaw, with two of her sons at her side.

She was born in Detroit, on Oct. 8, 1923, to Alice and Alger Clark. She attended high school (Chicago School for Girls) and then Merot College in Connecticut until the USA became involved in WW II and she returned home to Detroit to assist in the war effort. As the war concluded, Betty met and ultimately married her husband, Roy R. Winn. They had four children, Roy Jr., Pamela (Spears), Mark, and Stewart and divorced after 14 years of marriage.

Betty moved to Caseville, in 1984, where she had enjoyed so many family vacations. She loved being near the water and spent many happy hours admiring the view of the bay. She was an active member of the community in the Library Club, (the infamous picture ladies) and made many friends over the years through her participation in the annual Holly Berry Fair, with the golfing "girls," and through a myriad of social activities.

During the last couple of years, her neighbors, Tina and Lucy, and Sandy and Marty had become like family in their daily kindness and generosity.

Betty loved her family, especially her grandchildren, Amy (Art) Trakhman, Sarah Spears, Nicole (Eric) Rood, Melissa, Jennifer (Michelle); and her great grandchildren, Evan and Sage Trakhman and Finola and Dahlia Rood.

She will be dearly missed by her family and friends and by the many birds who visited her well-stocked feeder each winter.

The family is planning a memorial service and celebration of life at a later date.
