Twenty First Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 13:22-30

“Some who are last will be first, and some who are first will be last.”

A football team from an elite high school took the field wearing the newest uniforms and equipment, lead by well paid coaches. The opposing team from a high school in a poor neighborhood came on the field wearing old and worn pads, scarred helmets and jerseys; all had been handed down for years. Nothing matched. The coaches were all volunteers. Who do you think won the game? Who would you have been cheering for? Do we try to understand the plight of those who struggle for the bare necessities of life: food, clean water, shelter, clothing and basic education? Or do we associate with those we think have it made, or made more than they need for themselves? The disciples asked Jesus if only a few would be saved. Jesus answers by saying all can be saved, but those who believe they will be saved by keeping company with the rich, the famous and the powerful will find it difficult to enter the Kingdom. They can do it, but they must be strong enough to also associate with those in need.

The Knights of Columbus Council 10988
 St. Pius X, Calvert City, KY

Will be having an open meeting on

Tuesday, September 6, 2016 in the Parish Hall beginning at 7:00pm

What are the Knights of Columbus, better known as the KC's? If you have ever asked yourself that question, then we have the answer. We will be having an open meeting for men 18 years and older who might be interested in knowing more about what the Knights do. Find out the charities that we help and how we help serve our community and church. If you want to be with likeminded Catholic men, then this may be for you. Please feel free to contact any Knight and he will be glad to help. Hope to see you all there.
