January 28, 2019 HAC Monthly Community Meeting Comment Card Notes

What do you enjoy about HAC Community Meetings?

All people and their ideas and thoughts
Finding out about what is happening in the neighborhood and checking in with neighbors
Community members coming together to improve their homes, communities and lives
Meeting people and knowing about what is happening
Finding out what is happening in my community; making new friends; seeing the community becomes stronger every year!
Contributing to the growth of our community
Meeting the people

Continue with guest speakers and updates! More discussions/breakout sessions in groups.

Stay on agenda time frame

What topics would you like to see addressed at future HAC Community Meetings?

Affordable housing solutions, business and employment development/opportunities

I would like to see regular presentations from city staff on issues important to the Hilltop! City staff have been rare at community meetings the past 3 years yet they report regularly at neighborhood council meetings.

Mental health resources

Common problems (homelessness, drugs, etc.) and potential innovative solutions

What would make the HAC Community Meetings better?
