Vice President Yes	Steve Resling	C. A. Adams Jr.	Gerry Boglia
Sec/Treasurer Not present	Robert Boglia	W. Sherman	Kenneth Prehl
Soc/Rec Dir Yes	Charles A. Adams Jr.	P. Cooney	Gerry Boglia
Trustee Yes	William Macklin	C. A. Adams Jr.	Dennis Leone

Nominations were closed at 1245pm and a break was taken for pizza and refreshments. Meeting reconvened at 1pm.

There was a discussion of the final two meeting dates this year. The date of the June meeting will be in conjunction with Local 7048's GMM in order to have all the Retiree Chapter's officers sworn in and installed at the same ceremony. Suggested sites for the Meeting and luncheon are:

Dagwood's Pub -- 4625 Linden Ave, Philadelphia, PA 19114

Randi's Restaurant & Bar -- 1619 Grant Ave, Philadelphia, PA 19115

Maggie's Waterfront Café -- 9242 N Delaware Ave, Philadelphia, PA 19114

Millers' Ale House -- 9495 Roosevelt Blvd, Philadelphia, PA 19114

Social/Recreation Director Chuck Adams will look into some or all of these sites and report to the Executive Board with information on accommodations, menu, parking, etc.

Also discussed was the possibility of having both the Spring and Fall 2020 GMM Meetings at site where a free luncheon would follow the meeting.

Members were informed about the National Union's planned coordinated demonstrations at various Post Offices on April 15th, 2019, Tax Day, to raise public awareness to the fact that the USPS is not funded by US taxpayer dollars. Locally, there will be a demonstration at the Bustleton Post Office located near the intersection of Bustleton Ave. and Norwalk Road on April 15th, 2019 from 12 Noon to approximately 1:30 PM. APWU Local 7048 will support this demonstration with volunteers from the Local and the Retirees' Chapter.

There was a motion to spend up to $100.00 for a mailing related to that meeting and the November PA State, County and local Elections (non APWU) by Walt Sherman and seconded by Paul Cooney.

Doug Mirowski reported that as of 02/28/2019 the Retiree Chapter has $4645.83 in assets.

Motion to adjourn Walt Sherman, seconded by Dennis Leone.

Meeting adjourned at 130pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Doug Mirowski

President
