A Note from Rick: Tuesday was a short day all the way around. The weather was beautiful and I think everyone was in the field getting work done. All of our numbers were a little light and the markets were unchanged for the most part. We did have a big day on Saturday though for our October Driving Horse Auction. We had a great line-up of nearly 200 horses to choose from. The rain didn't affect the driving out back too much and the horses sold well. We are ready for a big Draft Horse Week and everyone has been working hard to get it done. We have an impressive group of people that make sure that we are ready for all the horses and the crowds. It takes a lot of people and hard work to make all this happen and we are very blessed to work with the best! Be sure to stop by TLA this week! It's where the Auction is!
